

Wladek Minor

Harrison Distinguished Professor of Molecular Physiology and Biological Physics
University of Virginia

E-mail: wladek@iwonka.med.virginia.edu

Co-author of 203 publications

Co-author of 433 macromolecular structures

Education:

M.Sc., University of Warsaw, 1969

Ph.D., University of Warsaw, 1978

Research Interest:

Development of methods for structural biology, in particular macromolecular structure determination by protein crystallography. Data management in structural biology, data mining as applied to drug discovery, and bioinformatics. Member of Center of Structural Genomics of Infectious Diseases. Former Member of Midwest Center for Structural Genomics, New York Center for structural Genomics and Enzyme Function Initiative.

Employment:

University of Warsaw 1969-1985

Purdue University 1985-1995

University of Virginia 1995- present

Research Impact:

citations > 42,000

Relative Citation Ratio (RCR) > 660

Trainees:

> 65 students

> 25 post-docs and Research Faculty

There are five PI's among lab alumni

Major Awards:

Edlich-Henderson Innovator of the Year award

American Crystallographic Association Fellow

American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) Fellow
